

Members of the Ivan Allen Circle, as a part of the Tocqueville Society, are individuals whose lives and work embody a moral imperative of, and compassion for, shaping a better future for humankind.

Atlanta Mayor Ivan Allen, Jr. (1962-1970) was a man of high principles who possessed a staunch belief in the humanity of all people. It is in this spirit that the Ivan Allen Circle was created within the Tocqueville Society, comprised of individuals whose lives and work embody a moral imperative of, and compassion for, shaping a better future for humankind.

Membership Criteria

Exclusive to Atlanta, The Ivan Allen Circle is reserved for members of the Tocqueville Society who contribute $25,000 or more annually to United Way of Greater Atlanta.

Membership Benefits

- All benefits granted to members of the Tocqueville Society
- Complimentary admission to First Tuesday Luncheons
- Invitations to VIP receptions and/or reserved seating at select United Way of Greater Atlanta events
- Opportunities to visit or participate in a program aligned to personal interest with our president and CEO
- Invitation to members-only Annual Results Breakfast

For More Information, Contact:

ivanallen@unitedwayatlanta.org

UNITEDWAYATLANTA.ORG | 404.527.7200 | #LIVEUNITED #UNITEDWAYATL

United Way of Greater Atlanta

