

Individuals ages 40 and under who dedicate their time to engage the next generation of leaders by cultivating the spirit of philanthropy, community advocacy, volunteerism and leadership.

United Way of Greater Atlanta Young Professional Leaders (YPL), is a compassionate, committed group of individuals on a mission to encourage the spirit of philanthropy. YPL members represent some of the top emerging leaders in Greater Atlanta, including Atlanta Business Chronicle's "40 under 40," as well as community and civic leaders. Chosen as one of the Atlanta Journal-Constitution's five professional clubs for millennials, YPL is the group of choice for community-minded young people. In 2015, 1,335 members donated more than $1.9 million to United Way of Greater Atlanta. Join the YPL movement as they take ownership today of Atlanta's tomorrow.
