This list is intended to be a general guide of possible signs, when combined, that a youth is or may be a victim of sex trafficking:

- The youth has a significantly older boyfriend.
- The youth is not allowed or able to speak for themselves - 3rd party insists on being present.
- The youth shows signs of physical trauma such as unexplained bruises, black eye, cuts or other marks.
- The youth shows signs of emotional trauma including increased fear, anxiety, tension, or nervousness.
- The youth has special marked tattoos, or branding on his/her body.
- The youth has started accumulating new clothes, shoes, jewelry or cell phones.
- The youth has no identification or is not in control of his/her identification documents.
- Other signs include:
  - Chronic runaway
  - Homelessness
  - Multiple STDs/STIs
  - Family history in the commercial sex industry
  - An explicitly sexual online presence and/or social media profile

WARNING

For your safety do not approach traffickers.
Call the hotline below and if instructed, the local police (911).

BE PREPARED:

- Description of cars: - license number - make - model - color
- Description of people: - height & weight - hair color - eye color - age
- Specific times & dates
- Address and locations where suspicious activity took place
- Take a photo if possible
- Reporting to the hotline (below) allows for data collection to identify trends and patterns

Georgia Cares 24-Hour Hotline
1-844-8GA-DMST

National Human Trafficking Hotline
888-373-7888

Text HELP to: BeFree (233733)

Global Hotlines
cnn.com/2015/03/30/world/freedom-project-hotlines

CNN Freedom Project
cnn.com/specials/world/freedom-project