

Today, nearly half a million children in the Greater Atlanta region live in communities with low child well-being. Want to change that? Start here.

 Check this box to give to United Way’s Child Well-Being Impact Fund to ensure lasting, collaborative solutions to the critical problems that stand between us and a better quality of life for children and families. Our Child Well-Being Impact Fund includes the four focus areas below and puts your money to work where it can do the most good for children and communities across our 13-county Greater Atlanta region.

Pick Your Passions: Support Specific Areas within the Child Well-Being Impact Fund

All donations will help advance child well-being across Greater Atlanta.

Give children the skills they need to succeed in school

Ensure children start school with the skills needed to succeed, are supported to reach their full potential and graduate prepared for careers.

Donations here support things like:

- Child care tuition scholarships to directly support the financial cost of care and ensure that low-income children have access to high-quality early learning
- Providing scores of students with afterschool enrichment programs that increase their academic proficiency and prepare them for the jobs of the future

Teach individuals and families to build a stable financial future

Provide individuals and families access to financial education, job training and assistance with tax preparation.

Donations here support things like:

- Helping hundreds of individuals build their job skills and increase their wages
- Providing free tax preparation assistance to low-income families that puts over $14 million in total refunds back in their pockets

CHECK HERE!

Give children and families access to health care services

Bring life-saving primary care access to children and families, as well as ensuring that more babies have a healthy start to life.

Donations here support things like:

- Providing dozens of women with prenatal care so their babies are born at a healthy weight
- Helping to feed more than 60,000 meals to children who are not part of a summer lunch program

CHECK HERE!

Move children and families out of homelessness

Give children and families the tools and resources they need to pull themselves out of homelessness and onto a path of self-sufficiency.

Donations here support things like:

- Providing more than 150 families with stable housing and keeping 500 children in school and on track for graduation
- Helping to house more than 650 homeless veterans and connecting 312 veterans to employment
